Q. Will an individual who is currently conducting a business or acting as a home inspector be "grandfathered" in?

A. Per Chapter 65, Tennessee Home Inspector License Act of 2005, Section 6(b): During the first one hundred eighty (180) days after the effective date of this act (July 1, 2006 through December 28, 2006) the commissioner may issue a license to an applicant who meets the requirements of Section 6 (a), excluding subsection (a)(5), if the applicant furnishes evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that the applicant:

- (1) Has been principally engaged in the performance of home inspections in this State for at least two (2) years; and
- (2) Has completed at least one hundred fifty (150) home inspections for compensation in the applicant's career.

The Commissioner has the authority to "grandfather" an applicant. This process will not be automatic. The decision will be made only after a review of the application.

Q. If I am a Contractor, can I automatically be "grandfathered" in for licensure?

A. No. Please refer to Chapter 65, Home Inspector Licensing Act of 2005, Sections 5 and 6. You will be required to meet the licensing requirements.

Q. Where can I take my home inspector training?

A. There is a list of recently approved home inspector schools on our website. Additional curriculum submitted and if approved, will be added to our website. We are also accepting training hours taken through schools endorsed by the National Associations. The Associations are listed in Chapter 65, Tennessee Home Inspector License Act of 2005, Section 4(b).

The web site addresses for the National Associations are: ashi.org, nachi.org, nahi.org, and ahia.org.
